

2 PAID INTERNSHIPS – in communications and in policy work

FEANTSA is recruiting 2 interns. To start as soon as possible and for at least 6 months.

FEANTSA is the European Federation of National Organisations Working with the Homeless and represents not-for-profit organisations involved in the fight against homelessness in Europe. More info on www.feantsa.org.

As Communications Intern you will support the Communications Officer and carry out the following work: daily news monitoring; drafting and editing articles for the monthly newsletter, managing social media accounts: supporting campaign work; helping with organisation of events, and updating the website.

Skills required:

- English mother tongue or equivalent level. Other languages an asset
- University degree. Educational background in communications a plus
- Sympathy for homelessness cause and good understanding of EU social affairs
- Computer literate and experience in web design and social media work

As Policy intern you will work on housing policy/market issues and support the responsible staff in lobby work, research, and project development.

Skills required:

- Excellent English. Other languages an asset
- University degree. Educational background in housing/urban development a plus
- Some work experience in the area of housing
- Sympathy for homelessness cause and good understanding of EU social affairs

Please send a cover letter explaining why you want to work for FEANTSA and your CV to freek.spinnewijn@feantsa.org by Wednesday 14 February. Interviews will take place on Wednesday 21 February with a view to start asap. Only candidates selected for the interview will be contacted.