

The successful home journey

- Experiences from the Transit-programme in Copenhagen

Bo Heide-Jochimsen (Outreach Worker)

Background

- Why help homeless people home?
- One of multiple ways out of homelessness
- Target group

1. The stabilising phase.

- Strong relation to the socialworker
- Motivation
- Practical help and bridge building

2. The phase of preparation

- Making contact with persons in the home country.
- Stabilizing in Copenhagen.
- Basic necessities are cared for.

3. The home journey.

- Organise all the practicalities.
- Accompany the homeless to the home country.

3. The home journey.

- Organised all the practicalities.
- Accompany the homeless to the home country.

4. The reception

- The social worker stays 2-3 days with the homeless .
- Telling the “real story”.

Conclusion

- New beginning without homelessness.
- Time!!!
- More than one home journey.

Thank you for listening!

Bo Heide-Jochimsen (Outreach Worker)

See more at www.udenfor.dk/uk